Pearl S. Buck International Named
"2019 Top-Rated NonProfit" by GreatNonprofits

Pearl S. Buck International has been named a "2019 Top-Rated Nonprofit" by GreatNonprofits, the leading provider of user reviews of charities and nonprofits.

Pearl S. Buck International continues the legacy of author, activist, and humanitarian Pearl S. Buck of bridging cultures and changing lives. This is achieved through the organization's international child sponsorship program that provides education, health and food assistance to children in need; intercultural and educational programs such as the High School Global Leadership program, Welcome Workplace inclusion and diversity workshops, and special exhibits; and tours of Pearl S. Buck's National Historic Landmark house that encourage taking action to become advocates for change.

"We are honored to be named a 2019 Top-Rated Nonprofit," Janet Mintzer, President and CEO of Pearl S. Buck International, said. "We appreciate all the work that GreatNonprofits does to promote our organization and the good people who wrote a review on the GreatNonprofits website."

The Top-Rated Nonprofit Award is based on the rating and number of reviews that Pearl S. Buck International received on the GreatNonprofits website from volunteers, donors, sponsors, and recipients of support. "I have been a volunteer at Pearl S. Buck International for over 11 years," wrote Nancy McElwee, President of the Pearl S. Buck International Volunteer Association. "I am continually impressed by the passion and commitment of those involved with the organization to continue the work begun many years ago by Pearl S. Buck."

"I've been a sponsor since 1974," wrote Jean Goldfine. "I love getting to know the kids and the funny, cheerful letters I get from them and their families. Pearl S Buck International is the best!"

GreatNonprofits is the leading website where people share stories about their personal experiences with more than 1.6 million charities and nonprofits. The GreatNonprofits Top-Rated Awards are the only awards for nonprofits determined by those who have direct experience with the charities – as donors, volunteers and recipients of aid.
