David Navazio, Owner of Gentell, Inc.
Named Board Chairman for Pearl S. Buck International

David Navazio has been named the new Board Chair of Pearl S. Buck International. Navazio, who currently serves as Board Treasurer, will begin his term on January 1, 2020. He joined the Board in December 2014 after serving as a member of the Pearl S. Buck International Advisory Council. Navazio is the Owner of Gentell, Inc., which manufactures advanced wound care and skin protection products for both national and international markets. He serves as Trustee of Liguori Academy in Philadelphia and has been involved with many charitable organizations, including as the Assistant Governor for Rotary District 7510, past president of the Rotary Club of Trenton, NJ and a member of the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army, West Central New Jersey region. Navazio resides in Upper Makefield, Bucks County, with his wife April and daughter Emily.

“It is truly an honor to be the chairman of Pearl S. Buck International,” Navazio noted. “One only need read about the life and legacy of our founder to understand what a special and impactful organization Pearl S. Buck International is. ‘Building better lives for children’ is central to the organization’s mission. As a father, I can think of no greater accomplishment. Further, my role as board chair is to ensure that Pearl S. Buck International is strong and stable for generations to come. I look forward to bringing my skills as a successful entrepreneur to this task.”
