Dear Sponsor,

On behalf of Pearl S. Buck Foundation (Thailand), we are pleased to introduce you to Wanida Sornsilpawut, and her family. She was born on July 8, 2018. She is now turning to 3 years old. She stands 3'2" and weighs 24.25 lbs. She is a Karen girl. Her nickname is Neung. She is a Buddhist girl who speaks Karen dialect.

Wanida and family lives in Ban Huay Yao village, a high land village located around 30 km from Mae Ramard district, and around 150 km from Tak province. Most of community people are Karen hill tribes (Kapagayaw), consisting children, working age persons, and elderly persons. Main occupation of people are agriculturists who grow rice and corn, as well as collect wild things for selling with low and uncertain income. Health problems found in community are children's malnutrition, cold, pneumonia, and diarrhea. Villagers are Buddhists and Christians, while some of them still believe in spirits.

Wanida is in good health and has received vaccinations per schedules. In generally, she is healthy and strong. She has developments per age. She got sick sometimes when weather changed, but got well in short time after taking enough resting and medicines received from healthcare center. Wanida and family are benefited from government healthcare insurance program.

Wanida is a lovely, polite, and cheerful girl. She is attending in pre-kindergarten class at Ban Nong Luang Child Development Center, a public child development center. She goes to school and back home by motorcycle with her father or mother. She receives USD 0.16 (USD 1=Baht 30) as daily allowance for buying sweets at the center. She is benefited from center free lunch program for students. She can study and learn things in the moderate level. She has good developments. She likes to learn new things and join activities with her teacher and friends. She is still too young to know about what she wishes to be when she grows up. Running race is her favorite sport. Light blue and pink are her favorite colors. In free time she enjoys running for fun, and playing games with her friends.

Your generous support is needed for Wanida as it will assist her to have more readiness in studying, and more willpower in paying good attention in studying continuously to graduate from high educational level for better future of herself and her family. Her family is very poor, her parents earn very few and uncertain income per year that is not enough to cover family's living cost and her education expenses. Without your kind support Wanida may decide to drop schooling before she completes compulsory level in order to help her parents working in the field to earn income for supporting whole family.

We would like to introduce you to the other members of the family: They are

Theeradon	M	2020	Younger brother	Good	-

Wanida's father, Mr. Somchai, is 26 years old. Her mother, Miss. Thiwaporn, is 25 years old. Her younger brother, Theeradon, is 1 year old and very cute. The family grows rice for family consumption and grows corn for selling. They earn low and uncertain income around USD 666 per year from selling corn crops. Everyone in family is in good health. They live simply and happily together.

The family lives in small one storey half wooden and half bamboo house with tile roof built high above the ground on public land. The house belongs to Wanida's paternal grandparents. It is one open room house, one corner of it was set as kitchen. They have hygienic toilet. Their house is surrounded by shady trees, and there is a large space for children to play. The house has no electricity system. The family uses water from mountain water supply system for consumption and boiled water for drinking. They cook rice and foods by using firewood. Household garbage is disposed by burning several meters away from their house.

Like any other Thai family, Wanida's family wishes to improve their quality of life. They dream of having their school age family members complete their education, enjoy good health, have a clean and orderly house and most importantly increase their income.

Wanida and her family need assistance and your sponsorship will make a difference in their lives. Your support will usher in new hope and confidence in the family as they work together for a brighter future. We commit to facilitate a family development process for this family so they achieve lasting improvement in their lives. Our foundation implements programs on Health, Education, Livelihood and Psycho-social development from which the family can benefit. We do this through the hand-up approach of partnership so families develop their self-help abilities to learn building up what they can do with a little assistance, motivation and inspiration from kind sponsors like you.

Wanida is still too young to write, so her mother, Miss. Thiwaporn, looks forward to writing to you in Thai language (original letters will be attached with English translation letters), and sharing important and interesting family events with you and your family in future.

We hope that you find this new partnership meaningful and rewarding.

Sincerely yours,
