Dear Sponsor,

On behalf of Pearl S. Buck Foundation (Thailand), we are pleased to introduce you to Bunchai Sae-thao and his family. He was born on November 18, 2014. He is now 8 years old, stands 3'5" and weighs 44.09 lb. Bunchai, who is fondly called "Song", is a Hmong hill tribe and Buddhist boy. He speaks both Thai language and Hmong dialect.

Bunchai and family live in Ban Mai Rongkla village, a high land village located around 40 km from Nakhon Thai district, and around 150 km from Phitsanulok province. Weather in this village is cool and cold almost in whole year, temperature in winter is around 0-4 degree Celsius. It is nice and cool in summer, and it rains often in rainy season. The villagers are Hmong hill tribe people. There are around 1,000 population or 100 households in this village. It is inconvenient for people in traveling from community to other places. Most of people are children and working age persons. Main occupation of community people are agriculturists who grow winter vegetables and fruit trees such as persimmon, peach, macadamia, cabbage, carrot, broccoli, tomato, paper daisy, and strawberry. Average yearly income of people is around USD 834 (USD 1= 30 Baht). There is a public school located in this village, and a public sub-district hospital located 16 km from this village. Health problems found in this community are respiratory illnesses, skin rash, drug addict problem, and hemorrhagic fever.

Bunchai and family are benefited from government health insurance program. He is healthy, strong, and has developments per standard of Thai children. He has received vaccines per scheduled. He eats 3 meals per day cooked by his mother. His favorite foods boiled egg, barbecued pork, and fried vegetables mixed with meat. Apple is his favorite fruit.

Bunchai is a cute, cheerful, not talkative, naughty, and active boy. He is studying in grade 2 at a public school named Ban Huay Namsrai (Rongkla Witaya Branch) School, located around 1 km from his home. He goes to school and back home by walking with friends. He is benefited from school free lunch program for students. He receives USD 0.50-0.66 as daily allowance to school. He can study in the moderate level. He likes going to school and joining in school activities with friends. Thai language is his favorite subject. He wishes to be a soldier when he grows up. He enjoys playing soccer and games, and running for fun with friends. Orange is his favorite color. Soccer is his favorite sport. He helps to do house works at home such as to wash dishes, and clean house.

Your generous support is needed for Bunchai as it will assist him to have more readiness in studying, and more willpower in paying good attention in studying continuously to graduate from high educational level for better future of himself and his family. His family is very poor, and earns very few and uncertain income per year that is not enough to cover family's living cost and his education expenses. Without your kind support Bunchai may decide to drop schooling before he completes compulsory level in order to help his parents working in the field to earn income for supporting whole family.

We would like to introduce you to the other members of the family:

Bunchai and family need assistance and your sponsorship will make a difference in their lives. Your support will usher in new hope and confidence in the family as they work together for a brighter future. Our foundation commits to facilitate a family development process for the family so they achieve lasting improvement in their lives. We implement programs on Health, Education, Livelihood and Psycho-social development from which this family can benefit. We do this through the hand-up approach of partnership so families develop their self-help abilities to learn building up what they can do with a little assistance, motivation and inspiration from kind sponsors like you.

Bunchai looks forward to communicating with you in Thai language (original letters will be attached with English translation letters), and sharing important and interesting family events with you and your family in future.

We hope that you find this new partnership meaningful and rewarding.

Sincerely yours,
