Hobbies and/or interests:

I was born in Zhenjiang, an ancient city in the south of the Yangtze River. The land of fish and rice nurtured me. I like reading. From the beginning picture books to fairy tales to books that have won children's Literature Awards and so on, they have always accompanied me when I was growing up. Among them, I like reading prose most. As an ancient Chinese saying goes, "reading thousands of books, traveling thousands of miles", we should study hard to make our talents pass through others and what we have learned can be reflected in our lives. At the same time, we should increase our knowledge, integrate theory with practice, and apply what we have learned. While reading, I also like to travel, especially traveling with textbooks and books, so as to better understand the artistic conception of the author when writing through personal experience. Of course, I am also a sports enthusiast. Basketball, long-distance running and swimming are all my spare time to adjust my state. The NBA's sportsmanship of "believing in miracles, never admitting defeat, never underestimating a champion's heart" also deeply affects my progress.

Any special talent:

I like to express my feelings and cultivate my own sentiments with soothing or warm music. Before I went to high school, I had been learning to play the classical guitar. At the beginning of my piano practice, I gradually entered the state under the supervision of my mother. However, I was very happy that every time I learned a new tune, after continuous practicing, it could become beautiful and smooth by plucking the strings with my fingertips. In the process of persistently learning musical instruments, I enjoy the beauty of music.

Future goals and/or college degree they want to earn:

My future goal is to work hard in the next three years of high school study and life, and enter China Agricultural University, and become an agricultural expert like Yuan Longping and Zhao Yafu. Make unremitting efforts to create a happy life for people.

Paragraph about the family:

I have a happy family. There are three people in my family. They are father, mother and me. My father's single name is "Jun" and my mother's single name is "ting". In the interpretation of Chinese characters, they all mean good-looking. They are both employees of the oil company, commonly known as "double employees", who love their work and are loyal to their careers; My mother is also a trainer. She has been busy studying and taking exams since I can remember. She is my example. I am now a high school student. In a harmonious family environment, I have developed my sunny and enthusiastic character. I love my parents and my family.

Monthly earnings:My parents earns 6000 yuan per month.
