Dear Sponsor,

On behalf of Pearl S. Buck Foundation-Philippines, Inc. (PSBP), I am pleased to introduce Arianney Pino and her family. Arianne as her nickname was born on 23 May 2015, she is now 6 years old.

Arianne, is an active and healthy grade 1 student at Linao Central School, a government school located 500 meters from their residence but due to pandemic they are using modular and online learning method in their schooling. She walks in going to and from her school. She is an excellent student and dreams of becoming a Doctor someday.

Arianne loves to play toys, hide-and-seek, playhouse and other outdoor activities with her friends in the neighbour-hood. She also enjoys dancing, singing and watching television. At home, she helps in different household chores such like cleaning the house and running errands.

Arianne, lives with her Grand Parents. Her mother Ana Ronquillo, 32 years old, works as a OFW (Domestic Helper in Dubai) and earns $360 per month while her Grandparents looks for the children needs. Their earnings usually spent on food, utilities and education.

Arianne has been in the area for 5 years now. They live together with their relatives and Grandparents. It is their own house and land. The house is built with G.I Sheets for the roof plywood walls and cemented flooring that in a good condition. It has 2 rooms and 4 windows which provide for the ventilation of the house and with kitchen and dining. They use electricity as source of light. The family able to eat three meals a day with rice, fish and vegetables being the usual combination. They get their water from pipe which they own and use gas stove for cooking. The family uses a water-sealed type of toilet and their household garbage is disposed of through government waste disposal system.

Like any other Filipino family, the Pino family wishes to improve their quality of life. The parent dream of having the child's complete education, enjoy good health, have a clean and orderly house and most importantly, increase their income.

PSBP, together with the community, implements programs in health, education and psychosocial development and protection that benefit the children, their families and communities in the area. We hope that through the PSBP sponsorship program, the Pino family could take part in our programs.

The sponsorship assistance that the PSBP could provide would greatly support Arianne's education and her family as well. PSBP is committed in helping the children achieve their full potential, build better lives through its various programs.

Arianne and her family look forward to communicating with you in the future to share special and important events of the family.

We hope that you find this new partnership meaningful and rewarding.

Very truly yours,

Teresita R. Latoza
