Dear Sponsor,

On behalf of Pearl S. Buck Foundation (Thailand), we are pleased to introduce you to Garnpiccha Lee-chanon and her family. She was born on February 2, 2019. She is now 4 years old, stands 3'1" and weighs 30.86 lb. Garnpiccha, who is fondly called "Hannah", is a Hmong hill tribe and Christian girl. She speaks both Thai language and Hmong dialect.

Hannah and family live in Ban Huay Namsrai village, a high land village located around 40 km from Nakhon Thai district, and around 150 km from Phitsanulok province. Weather in this village is cool and cold almost in whole year, temperature in winter is around 0-4 degree Celsius. It is nice and cool in summer, and it rains often in rainy season. The villagers are Hmong hill tribe people. There are around 1,000 population or 100 households in this village. It is inconvenient for people in traveling from community to other places. Most of people are children and working age persons. Main occupation of community people are agriculturists who grow winter vegetables and fruit trees such as persimmon, peach, macadamia, cabbage, carrot, broccoli, tomato, paper daisy, and strawberry. Average yearly income of people is around USD 834 (USD 1 = Baht 30). There is a public school located in this village, and a public sub-district hospital located 16 km from this village. Health problems found in this community are respiratory illnesses, skin rash, drug addict problem, and hemorrhagic fever.

Hannah and family are benefited from government health insurance program. She is healthy, strong, and has developments per standard of Thai children. She has received vaccines per scheduled. She eats 3 meals per day cooked by her mother. Her favorite foods are fried vegetables, grilled chicken, and soup. Apple and orange are her favorite fruits.

Hannah is a lovely, cheerful, talkative, polite, and confident girl. She is attending in year 2 of kindergarten level at a public school named Ban Huay Namsrai (Rongkla Witaya Branch) School, located around 1 km from her home. She goes to school and back home by walking with friends. She is benefited from school free lunch program for students. She receives around USD 0.33 as daily allowance to school. She can study in the moderate level. She likes going to school and joining in school activities with friends. She wishes to be a teacher when she grows up. Art education is her favorite subject. Pink is her favorite color. She likes to run for fun, dance, sing songs, and play games. She helps to do house works at home such as to wash dishes, and sweep floor.

Your generous support is needed for Hannah as it will assist her to have more readiness in studying, and more willpower in paying good attention in studying continuously to graduate from high educational level for better future of herself and her family. Her family is very poor, her family earns very few and uncertain income per year that is not enough to cover family's living cost and her education expenses. Without your kind support Hannah may decide to drop schooling before she completes compulsory level in order to help her family working in the field to earn income for supporting whole family.

We would like to introduce you to the other members of the family:

Hannah's father, Mr. Theeradech, is now 33 years old Her mother, Mrs. Garnwilai, is now 26 years old. They are agriculturists who grow vegetables for selling. They work as general workers after harvest season. They earn around USD 267 per month. The family has unpaid debt USD 2,333 to village funds. They have to pay money back to village funds in stipulated years. Hannah's younger brother, Thanasak, is 3 years old and not attending school. Everyone in her family is healthy and strong. They live simply and happily together.

Hannah and family live in one storey half concrete and half wooden house with tile roof built on public land. Her grandparents own the house legally. It has 1 bedroom, one opened room, one kitchen, and one bathroom. The house has electricity and is furnished with one old television, one rice cooker, and light bulbs. The family uses water from village water supply system for family consumption, and buy filtered water for drinking. They cook foods by using gas stove set. Household garbage is disposed by burning several meters away from their house. The family pays around USD 11.66 per month for electricity bill, and around USD 1.66 per month for water supply bill. They pay around USD 16.66 per month for rice for eating.

Like any other Thai family, Hannah's family wishes to improve their quality of life. They dream of having their school age family member completes his education, enjoys good health, have a clean and orderly house and most importantly increase their income.

Hannah and family need assistance and your sponsorship will make a difference in their lives. Your support will usher in new hope and confidence in the family as they work together for a brighter future. Our foundation commits to facilitate a family development process for the family so they achieve lasting improvement in their lives. We implement programs on Health, Education, Livelihood and Psycho-social development from which this family can benefit. We do this through the hand-up approach of partnership so families develop their self-help abilities to learn building up what they can do with a little assistance, motivation and inspiration from kind sponsors like you.

Hannah is still too young to write, so her mother, Mrs. Garnwilai, looks forward to communicating with you in Thai language (original letters will be attached with English translation letters), and sharing important and interesting family events with you and your family in future.

We hope that you find this new partnership meaningful and rewarding.

Sincerely yours,

Suntaree Rangkusone
