Dear Sponsor,

On behalf of Pearl S. Buck Foundation (Thailand), we are pleased to introduce you to Chanakorn Sornsilpawut, and his family. He was born on April 3, 2015. He is now 10 years old. He stands 4'5" and weighs 92.59 lbs. He is a Karen boy, his nickname is Pakka. He is a Buddhist boy who speaks Karen dialect.

Pakka and family live in a small village named Ban Nong Luang village, a high land village located away from Mae Ramard district. Most of community people are Karen hill tribes (Kapagayaw), consisting children, working age persons, and elderly persons. Main occupation of people are agriculturists who grow rice and corn, as well as collect wild things for selling with low and uncertain income. Health problems found in community are children's malnutrition, cold, pneumonia, and diarrhea. Villagers are Buddhists and Christians, while some of them still believe in spirits.

Pakka is in good health and has received receiving vaccinations per schedules. In generally, he is healthy and strong. He got sick sometimes when weather changed, but got well in short time after taking enough resting and medicines received from healthcare center. Pakka and family are benefited from government healthcare insurance program.

Pakka is a cute, polite, cheerful boy. He is studying in grade 5 at a public school named Ban Nong Luang School. It is around 800 m from his home to school. He goes to school and back home with his friends by walking. He is benefited from school free lunch program for student. He can study in the good level and has good developments. He likes to learn new things and join activities with his teacher and friends. He loves friends and can get along well with them. Thai language is his favorite subject. He wishes to be a doctor when he grows up. Pink is his favorite color. Soccer is his favorite sport. In free time he enjoys running for fun, playing games and sports with his friends. He helps his family to do house works such as to wash dishes, fill drinking water bottles, and sweep floor.

Your generous support is needed for Pakka as it will assist him to have more readiness in studying, and more willpower in paying good attention in studying continuously to graduate from high educational level for better future of himself and his family. His family is very poor, his parents earn very few and uncertain income per year that is not enough to cover family's living cost and his education expenses. Without your kind support Pakka may decide to drop schooling before he completes compulsory level in order to help his parents working in the field to earn income for supporting whole family.

We would like to introduce you to the other members of the family: They are

Given Name	Sex	Date/Year Of Birth	Relations to SC	Health Condition	Current Activity
Narong	M	1979	Father	Good	Agriculturist

Monrika	F	1982	Mother	Good	Agriculturist
Adisorn	M	2002	Older brother	Good	Agriculturist

Agriculturist's father, Mr. Narong, is 46 years old. His mother, Mrs. Monrika, is 43 years old. Pakka's older brother, Mr. Adisorn, is 23 years old, completed grade 9, and helps parents to work in the field. The family grows rice for family consumption and grows corn for selling. They earn low and uncertain income around USD 666.66 per year from selling corn crops. Everyone in family is in good health. They live simply and happily together.

The family lives in small one storey concrete house with tile roof built high above the ground on public land. The house belongs to Pakka's grandparents. It is one open room house, one corner of it was set as kitchen. They have hygienic toilet. Their house is surrounded by shady trees, and there is a large space for children to play. The house has electricity and is furnished with some light tubes. The family uses water from mountain water supply system for consumption and boiled water for drinking. They cook rice and foods by using firewood. Household garbage is disposed by burning several meters away from their house.

Like any other Thai family, Pakka's family wishes to improve their quality of life. They dream of having their school age family members complete their education, enjoy good health, have a clean and orderly house and most importantly increase their income.

Pakka and family need assistance and your sponsorship will make a difference in their lives. Your support will usher in new hope and confidence in the family as they work together for a brighter future. We commit to facilitate a family development process for this family so they achieve lasting improvement in their lives. Our foundation implements programs on Health, Education, Livelihood and Psycho-social development from which the family can benefit. We do this through the hand-up approach of partnership so families develop their self-help abilities to learn building up what they can do with a little assistance, motivation and inspiration from kind sponsors like you.

Pakka looks forward to writing to you in Thai language (original letters will be attached with English translation letters), and sharing important and interesting family events with you and your family in future.

We hope that you find this new partnership meaningful and rewarding.

Sincerely yours,

Suntaree Rangkusone
